

North Tyneside Steelband Festival 2007

Supported by North Tyneside Music Service, British Association of Steelbands and North Tyneside Steelband

The first annual festival will be on Friday July 6th 1000 – 1500 at Rising Sun Countryside Park

Benton, Newcastle (behind Asda Hypermarket, 0.5 mile W of Holystone jnc on A19)

There will be some indoor accommodation and plenty of space for outdoor playing; there will also be a marquee to cope with the possibility of inclement weather.

- 1000 individual band workshops with new tutors
- 1100 mass workshop to learn new tune/s together
- 1150 mass performance involving all bands/players of morning workshop tune/s
- 1200 individual bands performances in 10 min slots
- 1430 repeat of mass performance

This event is FREE

There are catering and picnic facilities on site

Please contact Dave Edwards on 0775 360 4281 or dave@steelbandsnorth.org.uk

If you would like to attend or bring a group.

Bands taking part –

Kingsmeadow School (Gateshead)

Monkseaton Middle School (Whitley Bay) – 2 bands

Sedgefield Community Steelband – 2 bands

Chantry Middle School (Morpeth)

North Tyneside Steelband

North Tyneside Steelband reg. charity 1059729

Chair: Phil Darling, Treasurer: Mike Gilberg, Committee: Debra Betham, Iain Betham, Donna Gilberg, Jenny Gilberg, Jeff Higginbottom, Sue Higginbottom, Adam Stead, Mandy Watters

Members of British Association of Steelbands, Making Music, Sound Sense, Steelbands North

Supported by North Tyneside Council