BACH meets BRADLEY

Port of Spain, Trinidad. Tuesday 11th August, 2009. The talented Christian Lumsden will perform beautiful renditions of Johann Sebastian Bach in conjunction with the Laventille stars - Witco Desperadoes, performing the music of the legendary Trinidadian born Clive Bradley. The concert and public discussion will take place on Saturday 15th August, 2009 at the Tranquility Methodist Church from 7.30 pm.

This will be a once in a lifetime musical experience when our own Trinidadian musicians will play the music for both the organ and the pan, by two of the best composers of music. The similarities and differences of these two musical geniuses will come to life at this unique juncture of music par excellence.

This notice is short but the cause is just!! It will be a celebration of music, put on by Pat Bishop and the Lydian Singers, in celebration of their thirtieth year of music-making.

A collection will be taken up for the Tranquility Church.
